The New Superintendent.
 Prof. L. E. Wolfe was born in Lewis county, Virginia, in 1852. His boyhood days were spent in farm work and it was not until he was 13 years of age that he entered the district school for the first time.
 This short winter term was followed by farm drudgery and this by another brief term of winter school.
 These two short terms were the only ones he ever spent in a country school as pupil.
 Owing to the ill health of his father and the crippling of his elder brother the work on the farm devolved on young Wolfe, assisted by a younger brother. He sent his crippled brother to school and it was in conversation with him during his summer vacations that he decided to prepare himself for what proved to be his life work. He set to work to study his brother's books at night and at the age of 19 he was employed to teach a district school at $30 per month. Disappointed in a district school by reason of an epidemic he set out for Lexington, Ky., where an old friend of his, Will Woolery, was in the Transylvania university. He obtained permission to attend the recitation. Six months of the ensuing year he attended Millersburg college. His progress in learning was phenome-nally rapid. Coming west in 1875 he took charge of the public school at Hopkins, Mo. Since then he has had charge of schools at Plattsburg, Nevada and Moberly.
 Although he never had more than sixteen months' schooling in his life, Prof. Wolfe is one of the most widely read and best informed men to be found in the profession in Missouri.
 He has been a life long democrat and has a wide acquaintance among the politicians of the state.

Attacked by Indians.
 Lordsburg, N. M., June 18.—A cowboy arrived at Separ station on the Southern Pacific near here yesterday and said that the Indians had attacked a camp of cowboys on a ranch. He and ten others were in camp when, Monday night about 10 o'clock, twenty or thirty Indians rode down upon them and attempted to shoot them. Some of the cowboys were armed, but not expecting an attack, were not prepared for defense. He thought that all his companions were killed.

Puck says "Charles Lamb's humor never shows a taste of bitterness; but then Charles had a regular job as a bookkeeper to fall back upon." But in these days it is not always the poor who put a sting in their words. Pessimism is common and all of that unwholesome brood are more or less bitter.

"Ever hear how Uncle Warren Lelan made his money?" queried an attache of the Leland Hotel of a Chicago Post reporter referring to the proprietor's uncle, whose portly figure, seated in a comfortable easy chair behind the desk, has several weeks past been a conspicuous ornament of the place. "Didn't! Well, it was in California during the gold fever of '49. Uncle Warren caught the fever with many others, and taking $1,500 set sail for the Golden Gate. He didn't know what he was going to do; he only knew that he was not coming back without a fortune. The trip was of six months' duration, and in its course he made the acquaintance of a man, like him, who was going to the promised land, but unlike Uncle Warren he had no money. He had, however, a small printing press and a dress of type, and the upshot of their acquaintance was the purchase by Uncle Warren for $1,500 of one half interest in the outfit. When San Francisco was reached they found that their press was the first one on the ground, and in a few days circulars setting forth their arrival, and which they had printed on the voyage were all over the country. Business started with a boom and kept booming.
 When a man had a mine to sell he had to have circulars, and the fact that they cost him $5 apiece made no difference. Well, things kept up for 18 months and then Uncle Warren took $75,000 as his share of the profits and returned to New York.
 And he was only 22 years old. But he didn't blow it in. He formed a partnership with his brother and started the famous Metropolitan Hotel, which proved such a mint to both of them.

One night when old Dan Rice was exhibiting his circus in an Ohio town, says the New York Sun, it came on a rain about the time the performance was over, and hundreds of people stuck to the tent for shelter. Dan didn't want to be mean, but that canvass must come down, and so he sent three of the men through the crowd to whisper:

"Don't get excited and make a rush, but I must inform you that the Numidian lion has escaped from his cage. Please go out quietly."

The people went out fast enough —all but a few unbelievers. There was a farmer and his wife and children, and he got them in a circle in the ring and placed four or five pickles, three or four hard-boiled eggs and a paper of salt in his straw hat in the centre. One of the men came up and inquired:

"What are you doing here old man?"

"Waitin," was the reply.

"Didn't you know that the lion was loose?"

"Yaas, I heard 'em say so. Is it true?"

"Of course it is."

"Regular lion?"

"Yes."

"Regular Numidian lion?"

"Yes."

"Healthy and fat?"

"Yes."

"Waal, that's what we're waitin' fur. We're a calculatin' to eat the durned critter afore we leave, and I wish you'd hurry him up!"

Is It Any Wonder

that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery outsells all other blood and liver medicines, since it possesses such superior curative properties as to warrant its manufacturers in supplying it to the people (as they are doing, through druggists) under conditions such as no other medicine is sold under, viz: that it must either benefit or cure the patient, or the money paid for it will be promptly returned. It cures all diseases arising from deranged liver or from impure blood, as biliousness "liver complaint," all skin and scalp diseases, salt-rheum, tetter, scrofulous sores and swell-ings, fever-sores, hip-joint disease and all kindred ailments.

 dent and vice president and representatives in congress yesterday decided, by a party vote, to report to
